

The Cat's Pajamas Recordings

"Cool Music For Kids"

This award-winning debut album received national recognition from The Children's Music Web, naming The Cat's Pajamas, Best New Artists for Young Children, 2000. Includes audience favorites The Bellybutton Song, The Pirate Song, The Library Song, Free Ride In and Sittin' Down to Eat. Target age, 2-7 or anyone with a sense of humor.

"... a gem. Schreiner and Stahl are almost overqualified for the kid's market." – Tune Up, the newsletter of the Philadelphia Folksong Society

"Goin' Bananas"

Recipient of the Children's Music Web Award Best New Album for Young Children, 2002 with The Cat's Pajamas band on electric guitar, bass, drums, percussion and lots of friends on trumpet, trombone, saxophone, keyboards and more! Rich instrumentation with our trademark harmony and humor! Includes audience favorites Alphabet Soup, Hugga Hugga, Seed in the Ground, Locomotion, Waddlee-acha, Boiled Okra and Spinach and Garrison Keillor's Bananas. Ages 5-11

"This music is not for "kids only." Professional music for kids and adults like this is rare to find." – To The Bone, website for indie labels

"Reading Rocks"

The Cat's Pajamas celebrates books and the kids who read them with their newly released CD, Reading Rocks! (Oct 2005). The companion piece to their highly acclaimed literacy-centric show, the album showcases their rich harmonies and sophisticated arrangements. Backing vocals by The Tom Cats and some of Philly's coolest cats on keyboards, sax, trumpet, tuba, trombone and harmonica make this an album for parents and kids to love together. Includes Read To Me, I'm a Bookworm, You're in Trouble, Splish Splash, Senor Gato, The Bug Song, Loose Tooth, Ketchup, That Would Be You, Pop Tarts, Dream a Little Dream of Me. Ages 5-11
