The Cat's Pajamas makes very cool music for kids, bringing a musical comedy twist to high-octane kid-rock. With dance, puppets, props and costumes and a great band backing their signature 3-part harmony, The Cat's Pajamas not only captures the imagination of children but also thoroughly engages the adults.

Reviewed as "...the most polished act in the Philly kids music scene" with 3 award-winning CDs and a live concert DVD, they have been featured on WXPN Kid's Corner and children's radio shows throughout the U.S. and Australia.

Regional venues include Sesame Place, the Kimmel Center, World Café Live, Sunoco's Welcome America, Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Ocean City Music Pier. National venues include The Regent Theatre, Boston; Eric Carle Museum, MA; Williams College Museum of Art; Jammin' Java, VI; Edgecombe College, NC.

With their "Reading Rocks!" show, The Cat's Pajamas has headlined events for national literacy organizations Head Start, Reading is Fundamental and Reach Out and Read and Words Are Wonderful. 2007-08 tours include performances in Boston, western Mass., New York, New Jersey, North Carolina and Virginia.

The Cat's Pajamas is based in Philadelphia and is available for bookings throughout the U.S.

"The Cat's Pajamas makes great music for everyone in the family – even dads."

– Bill Harley, children's musician, storyteller and NPR commentator.

"Bring your family to see this all-ages show. They are a nationally lauded kick-in-the-pants!"

–Williams College Museum of Art

"The Cat's Pajamas are perhaps the foremost family musical artist out there working today....miss them at your own risk!

–Michael Jaworek, promoter for America's legendary music hall The Birchmere
